

Workforce Planning and Industrial Relations Seminars

To help employers with understanding the current rules and regulation around employing staff DairyTas, through their Workforce Planning and Development contractor, Penny Williams, will be hosting a Workforce and Industrial Relations Seminar.

Topics to be covered at this FREE seminar include:

- Managing excessive leave
- 152 hours per four week period calculation and then overtime
- Visas and how they are working now
- Labour agreements
- Correct procedures for termination of staff
- What determines an Independent Contractor
- Managing the new casual conversion policy

Guest Speakers for the seminars are:

- Andrew Cameron – Workplace Relations Director, Primary Employers Tasmania
- Jennie Corkhill – Solicitor (Industrial Relations law expert)

At the end of the seminar there will be the opportunity to have individual questions answered in a one on one environment.

Seminar Details:

Date	Venue	Time
Wednesday 8 November	Circular Head Recreation Centre Nelson Street, Smithton	10.30 am to 12.30 pm
Wednesday 8 November	Meander Hall Main Road, Meander	6.30 pm to 8.30 pm
Thursday 9 November	Legerwood Hall Main Street, Legerwood	10.30 am to 12.30 pm

A lunch/supper will be provided at each session.

Please RSVP to DairyTas on 6432 2233 or email admin@dairytas.net.au

